Scene 1 — Daughter comforting crying mother (raft departure)

Scene 2 — Wide flood devastation shot
"Wide cinematic shot of a flooded Assam village at dusk, houses partially submerged with floodwater reaching up to their rooftops and windows, a few distant figures wading slowly through waist-to-chest-deep water carrying bundles above their heads, submerged power lines and a temple spire visible above the waterline, heavy monsoon rain falling steadily, a single lantern glowing faint through the mist, muted grey-blue color palette, somber and haunting atmosphere, realistic and physically consistent water levels, digital painting, highly detailed, no text, no watermark"

Scene 3 — Rescue boat arrival

Scene 1

"Animate this image with subtle motion over 26 seconds: the elderly mother's face shows quiet distress, tears visible on her cheeks as she sits hunched on the raft, while her daughter remains standing beside her in the same position, gently placing a comforting hand on her shoulder and softly stroking it to console her — rain falls steadily throughout, water ripples slowly around the raft, the distant lantern light flickers faintly, camera holds a slow, steady drift inward, somber and emotional mood, muted grey-blue tones, no sudden movement, no text, no watermark"

Scene 2

"A wide cinematic shot of a flooded Assam village at dusk, houses partially submerged with water reaching up to their rooftops and windows, floodwater at chest-to-shoulder height, heavy monsoon rain falling steadily, a few distant figures wading slowly and carefully through the waist-to-chest-deep water carrying bundles above their heads, movement slow and labored against the current, submerged power lines and a temple spire visible above the waterline, a single lantern glowing faint through the mist, very slow drone-like camera pan across the scene, muted grey-blue tones, somber and haunting atmosphere, realistic and physically consistent water levels, 26 seconds, no text, no watermark"

Scene 3

"Animate this image with subtle motion: a rescue boat drifts steadily closer through the mist, an officer extends a hand and a life jacket toward the raft, the daughter looks up first with visible relief, then gently helps her mother reach toward the boat, heavy monsoon rain continues falling steadily throughout, floodwater churns and ripples around both vessels, warm boat light growing slightly brighter as it nears through the downpour, camera holds a slow, steady drift forward, tense yet hopeful resolution, slow fade to black, no text, no watermark"
